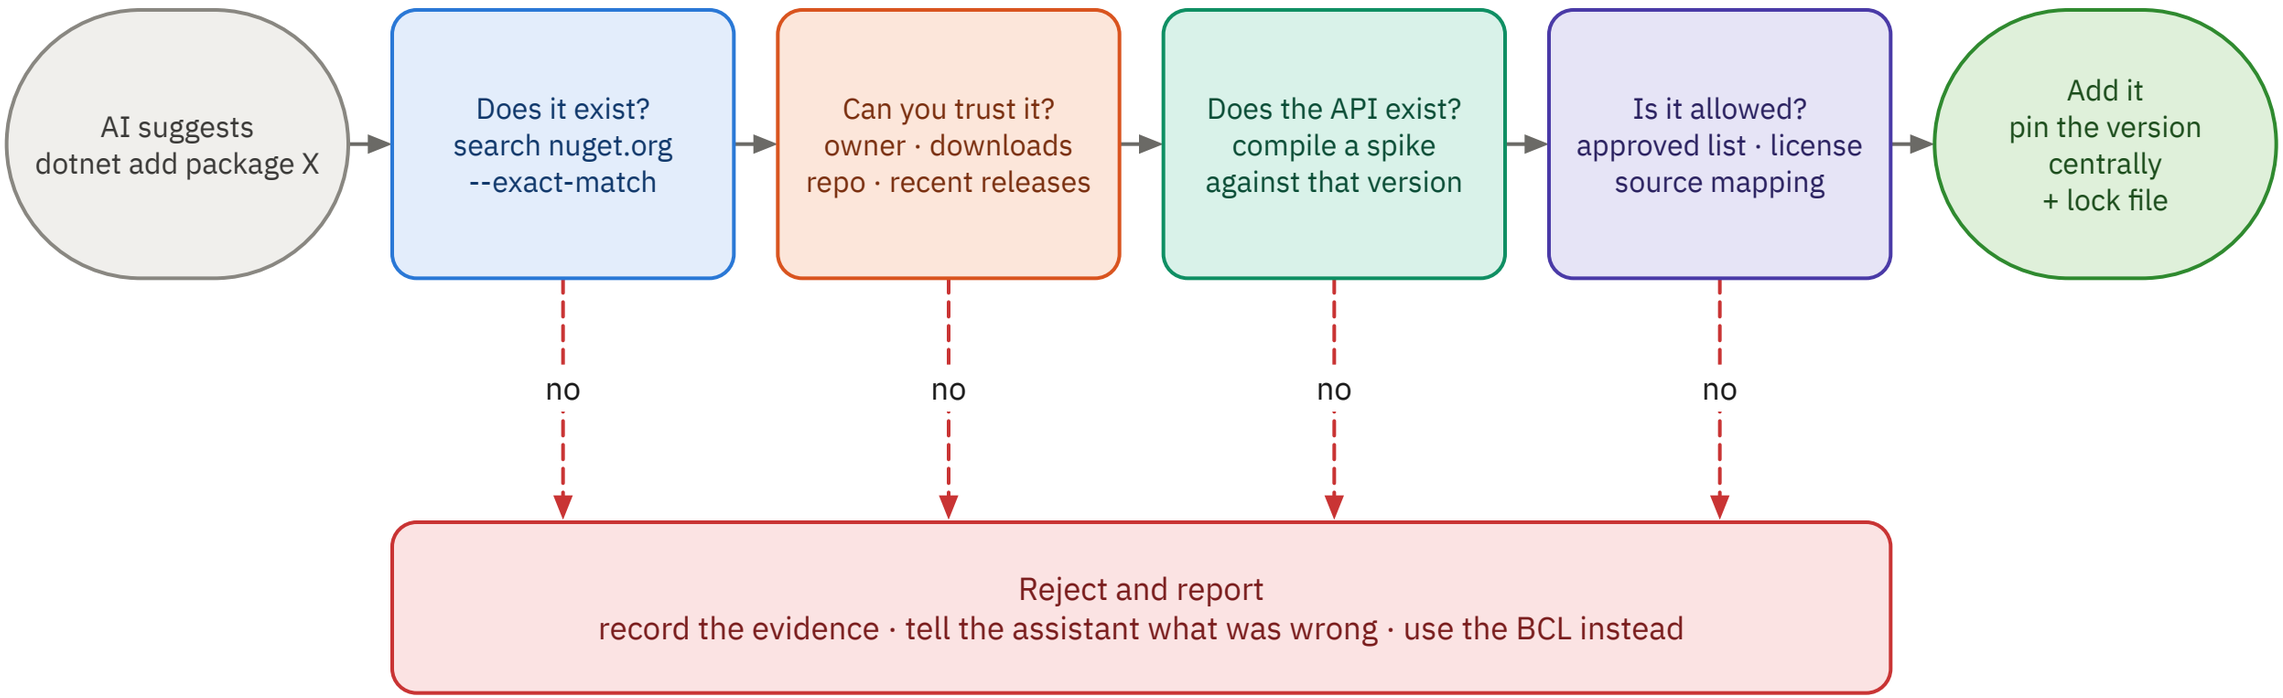
Verify a Package Before You Add It

An AI-suggested dependency is a decision you own: four checks, and any failure stops the change



"No results" today isn't safe forever: anyone can register a name models invent (slopsquatting). Reject it; don't wait for it to appear.

Ask first: do we need a package at all? Many AI-suggested packages replace twenty lines of code the BCL can already write.